ETFO CREDIT COURSES

Experience success today

Would you like to teach more effectively and improve your position on the salary grid? With ETFO Credit Courses, you can do both.

ETFO Credit Courses are accredited by The School of Education at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. Each course is recognized as a half credit by the Qualifications Evaluation Council of Ontario (QECO)* for possible grid improvement.

ETFO Credit Courses will help you improve your professional qualifications, your teaching experience, and your career.

 Please check with QECO before registering to determine suitability for your personal rating.*

Experience better teaching

Energize your teaching with practical, research-based strategies that you can use in your own classroom.

- Create powerful lessons
- Differentiate instruction successfully
- Explore learning styles
- Motivate at-risk students
- Manage your classroom effectively

Our enthusiastic instructors understand the challenges you face every day. You will network with other excellent educators to help you grow professionally and collaboratively.

Experience the opportunity

Convenient face-to-face courses offered close to home. You can earn accreditation in just 45 hours of instruction time (36 hours minimum of classroom time).

ETFO Credit Courses are affordable: ETFO is committed to providing them at very reasonable cost. Each course taken for academic credit is $475. Those opting to take the course for professional growth pay only $350.

etfocreditcourses.ca

ETFO CREDIT COURSES

Register today: etfocreditcourses.ca

Our mission is to help teachers reach their potential.